For 30 years Tom has brought his strong work ethic to his job sites in Decorah and Winneshiek County. With the same dedication to the trade, sons Jordan and Travis joined their father's firm on a full time basis in 2003. Coupled with wife Barbara's 19 years in real estate sales, they all pride themselves in listening to their customer's needs.

"We have been extremely pleased with our building experience with Tom Massman Construction. Tom and his sons, Jordan and Travis, worked efficiently and diligently on a recent home-building project. Tom was prompt at all stages of the building process. He gave excellent advice on any questions we had and acted respectfully on any concerns we expressed. Tom Massman Construction proved to be a very professional company and we would highly recommend them in considering your building needs."
